

The
U.P Dookan Aur Vanijya Adhishthan Adhiniyam, 1962

[U.P. Act XXVI of 1962]0

(As passed by the U.P. Legislature)
As Act to consolidate and amend the law relating to the regulation of conditions of work and employment in shops and commercial establishments

It is hereby enacted in the Thirteenth Year of the Republic of India as follows:

Prefatory Note.—An extract from the Statement of Objects and Reasons is given below:

"The U.P. Shops and Commercial Establishments Act, 1947, was enacted in the year 1947 to provide for holidays and to regulate the hours of employment in shops and commercial establishments. Since then the Act has been enforced in more than 100 towns. During the 14 years of its administration in the State many shortcomings and deficiencies have been experienced. A number of suggestions from the employers' and the employees' unions have also been received for making amendment to certain provisions of the existing Act. In order to remove these difficulties and to provide some additional facilities to the employees of shops and commercial establishments, it has become necessary to amend the existing Act. As the proposed amendments are numerous it has been decided to repeal the existing Act and to bring in a comprehensive Bill incorporating the necessary provisions for regulating the conditions of work and employment of employees in the shops and commercial establishments." Vide U.P. Gazette, Extraordinary, dated September 15, 1962.

Constitutionality of Act.—Provisions of the Act are not ultra vires the Constitution.¹

PRELIMINARY

1. Short title, extent and application.—(1) This Act may be called the Uttar Pradesh Dookan Aur Vanijya Adhishthan Adhiniyam, 1962.

(16) 'shop' means any premises where any wholesale or retail trade or business is carried on, or where services are rendered to customers, and includes, all offices, godowns or warehouses, whether in the same premises or not, which are used in connection with such trade or business;

(17) 'State' means the State of Uttar Pradesh;

(18) 'wages' means all remuneration (whether by way of salary, allowances or otherwise) expressed in terms of money, or capable of being so expressed, which would, if the terms of employment, express or implied, were fulfilled, be payable to an employee, and includes—

(a) any bonus;

(b) any sum payable to the employee by reason of the termination of his employment; or

(c) any additional remuneration payable under the terms of his employment;

(19) 'week' means a period between the midnight on Saturday, and the midnight on the following Saturday; and

(20) 'young person' means a person who is not a child and has not completed his seventeenth year.

3. The provisions of the Act not to apply to certain persons, shops and commercial establishments.—(1) The provisions of this Act shall have no application to—

(a) employees occupying positions of confidential, managerial or supervisory character in a shop or commercial establishment, wherein more than five employees are employed:

Provided that the number of employees so exempted in a shop or commercial establishment shall not exceed ten per cent of the total number of employees thereof;

(b) employees whose work is inherently intermittent, as in the case of a traveller or canvasser;

(c) offices of Government or local authorities;

(d) offices of the Reserve Bank of India;

(e) establishments for the treatment or care of the sick, infirm, destitute or mentally unfit;
and

(2) A list of the employees referred to in clause (a) of sub-section (1) shall be displayed at a conspicuous place in the shop or commercial establishment and a copy thereof shall be sent to the Inspector concerned.

(3) Powers of the Government to exempt any class of shops or commercial establishments from the operation of the Act.—The State Government may, in public interest, by notification in the Gazette, exempt, subject to such conditions as it may impose in this behalf, any shop or commercial establishment or any class of shops or commercial establishments from the operation of all or any of the provisions of this Act.

(4) Withdrawal of exemption by the State Government.—The State Government may, likewise by notification in the Gazette, withdraw in whole or in part, permanently, or for such period as may be specified, any exemption granted under sub-section (3).

4. Savings.—Nothing contained in this Act shall adversely affect any right or privilege to which any employee may be entitled, on the date on which this Act begins to apply to him, under any law, award, agreement, contract, custom or usage, in force on that date.

¹⁴[CHAPTER I-A REGISTRATION OF SHOPS AND COMMERCIAL ESTABLISHMENTS

4-A. Register of shops and commercial establishments.—The Chief Inspector shall maintain in such form and containing such particulars as may be prescribed, a register of all shops and commercial establishments, to which this Act applies:

Provided that such different registers may be maintained for different areas and for different classes of shops and commercial establishments.

4-B. Registration.—(1) Every owner of a shop or commercial establishment shall within three months of the commencement of such business or within three months of the commencement of the Uttar Pradesh Dookan Aur Vanijya Adhishthan (Sanshodhan) Adhiniyam, 1976, whichever is later, apply to the Chief Inspector for registration of his shop or commercial establishment.

(2) Every application for registration under sub-section (1) shall be in such form and shall be accompanied by such fees as may be prescribed.

(3) The Chief Inspector shall, on being satisfied that the prescribed fee has been deposited, register the shop or commercial establishment in the register maintained under Section 4-A and shall issue a certificate of registration to the owner in such form and in such manner, as may be prescribed.

4-C. Term and renewal of registration certificate.—The registration certificate granted under Section 4-B shall be valid for such period as may be prescribed, and shall on an application being made in that behalf and upon payment of the prescribed fees, be renewable from time to time by the Chief Inspector for such further period as may be prescribed.

4-D. Duplicate registration certificate.—When a registration certificate is lost, destroyed or torn, or is defaced or otherwise becomes illegible, the Chief Inspector shall in the manner prescribed and on payment of the prescribed fee, issue a duplicate registration certificate.]

CHAPTER II HOURS OF BUSINESS

5. Hours of business.—(1) No shop or commercial establishment, not being a shop or commercial establishment mentioned in Schedule II, shall, on any day, open earlier, or close later than such hour as may be prescribed in this behalf.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-section (1), earlier opening, or later closing, hours may be prescribed for different classes of shops or commercial establishments, or for different areas, or for different periods of the year.

(3) The State Government may, at any time, by notification in the Gazette, add to or remove from Schedule II, any class of shops or commercial establishments.

6. Hours of work and overtime.—(1) No employer shall require or allow an employee to work on any day for more than—

(a) five hours in the case of a child,

(b) six hours in the case of a young person, and

(c) eight hours in the case of any other employee:

Provided that any employee, not being a young person or a child, may be required or allowed to work longer than the aforesaid hours of work, so however, that the total number of hours of work including overtime does not exceed ten on any one day except on a day of stock-taking or making of accounts:

Provided further that the total number of hours of overtime work shall not exceed fifty in any quarter.

Explanation.—"Quarter" means a period of three consecutive months beginning on the 1st of January, the 1st of April, the 1st of July or the 1st of October.

(2) An employee, who has worked in excess of the hours of work fixed under clause (c) of sub-section (1), shall be paid by his employer, wages at twice the ordinary rate, for every overtime work.

Explanation 1.—For the purposes of this sub-section "ordinary rate" means the basic wages plus such allowances, including the cash equivalent of the advantage accruing through the concessional sale to employees of food grains and other articles, as the employee is for the time being entitled to, but does not include bonus.

Explanation 2.—In calculating the wages payable to an employee for overtime work, a day shall be reckoned as consisting of eight working hours.

7. Intervals for rest and spread-over of working hours in a day.—The working hours in a shop or commercial establishment shall be so arranged that each employee gets an interval of not less than half an hour for rest after not more than five hours of continuous work, and the periods of work and intervals of rest of an employee do not spread-over more than twelve hours in one day:  Top

Provided that the State Government may, in public interest and subject to such conditions as it may consider necessary or expedient, increase the said spread-over period either generally or for a class of shops or commercial establishments.

CHAPTER III HOLIDAYS AND LEAVE

8. Close days.—(1) Every employer shall keep his shop or commercial establishment, not included in Schedule II, closed on—

(a) one day in a week, and

(b) such public holidays in a year as may be prescribed, to be hereinafter referred to, as close days.

(2) The choice of a close day not being a close day which is a public holiday shall, subject to the approval of the authority appointed by the State Government in this behalf, rest with the employer. A notice specifying all close days shall be prominently displayed by the employer in a conspicuous place in the shop or commercial establishment.

(3) The close day shall not be altered by the employer except once in a year and with the approval of the authority appointed under sub-section (2), to be obtained in the manner prescribed. Any such alteration shall take effect as from the first day of January of the year following:

Provided that where the employers in one locality do not observe the same day of the week as the close day, the authority appointed under sub-section (2) may, in the manner prescribed, fix a day as the close day for such locality:

Provided further that the authority may, on the written request of the majority of the employers in a locality, at any time after six months from the date on which a close day was earlier fixed, alter, with effect from a date to be specified by him, the close day, not being a close day which is a public holiday.

Explanation.—'Locality' means any compact area declared as such by public notice by the authority appointed under sub-section (2).

9. Holidays—Every employee, not being a watchman or a caretaker, shall be allowed by the employer holiday on—

(i) every close day which is a public holiday; and

(ii) one whole day in each week:

Provided that nothing in clause (ii) shall apply to any employee whose total period of employment in the week including any day spent on leave or any holiday, is less than six days.

10. Earned leave, sickness leave and casual leave.—(1) Every employee, who has been in continuous employment of the same employer for a period of twelve months or over, shall in addition to any holiday allowed under Section 9, be entitled to earned leave for not less than fifteen days for every twelve months of such service:

Provided that a watchman or a caretaker who has been in continuous employment for a period of twelve months or over shall be entitled to not less than sixty days earned leave for every twelve months of such service.

(2) Every employee, who has been in continuous employment of the same employer for a period of six months or over shall, subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, be further entitled to sickness leave for not less than fifteen days in any one calendar year.

(3) Every employee shall, subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, be also entitled, in addition to earned leave and sickness leave, to casual leave for not less than ten days in any one calendar year.

(4) Subject to the provisions of the rules made under this Act, all leave shall be granted when applied for.

(5) Any earned leave not availed of in any year by an employee shall be added to such leave accruing to the employee in the year following:

Provided that the total period of earned leave admissible to an employee at any time shall not exceed 45 days.

(6) In computing the period of continuous employment of an employee within the meaning of sub-section (1) or (2), the period during which he has been on leave under this section shall be included.

(7) Where the services of an employee are terminated by his employer, or where the employee terminates the employment, the employer shall be liable to pay to the employee wages for the number of days for which the earned leave is due to him.

11. Payment for leave refused.—(1) When earned leave is refused to an employee having to his credit such leave for 45 days, he shall be entitled, in respect of the period covered by the refusal, to an amount which would have been payable to him as wages for the period in case he had been on leave during that period.

(2) The amount payable under sub-section (1) shall be in addition to the wages payable for the period.

(3) On an employee receiving the said amount, the earned leave to his credit shall be reduced by the number of days in respect of which such amount is received.

12. Wages for holidays and leave.—For every holiday, and for each day of leave allowed under this Act, the employee shall be entitled to wages at a rate not less than that rate to which the employee was entitled for the day immediately preceding the holiday or the day of leave availed by him, anything to the contrary contained in any other law, contract, custom or usage notwithstanding.

CHAPTER IV WAGE DEDUCTIONS AND NOTICES OF DISCHARGE

13. Wage period.—(1) Every employer shall fix a period, hereinafter referred to as the wage period, at the expiry, and in respect of which wages shall be payable to his employees.

(2) No wage period shall exceed one month.

(3) The wages of every employee shall be paid within such period as may be prescribed.

(4) The remuneration due to an employee in lieu of unavailed period of leave, and the wages earned by him, shall be paid—

(a) where the termination of his employment is by or on behalf of the employer, before the expiry of the second working day after such termination; and

(b) where the termination of his employment is by the employee, on or before the next pay day.

14. Payment of wages for period of earned leave.—(1) An employee proceeding on earned leave shall, on demand, be given advance payment of the wages for half the period of the leave, and the wages for the wage period immediately preceding such leave. The wages for the remaining half period of such leave shall be payable to him along with the wages for the first wage period after he resumes duty.

(2) The wages for the period of sickness leave shall be payable to the employee along with his wages for the first wage period after he resumes duty.

15. Deductions from wages.—No deductions from the wages of an employee shall be made except to such extent, and in such manner, as may be prescribed.

16. Fines on employees.—No fines in excess of three per cent of the wages payable to an employee for any wage period shall be imposed on him by the employer.

17. Register of fines.—(1) The employer shall maintain a register in the prescribed form, wherein shall be entered all fines imposed and recoveries thereof.

(2) Fines recovered from employees shall be applied only to such purposes as may be beneficial to them and approved by the authority empowered in this behalf by the State Government.

18. Recovery of wages.—The wages of an employee, if not paid as provided by or under this Act, shall be recoverable in the manner provided in the Payment of Wages Act, 1936, as if the same wages were payable under that Act.

19. Discharge of employee by his employer.—(1) No employee, other than an employee engaged for a specified period or in a leave vacancy, shall be discharged from service by his employer except on the ground that—

(a) the post held by him has been retrenched; or

(b) he is unfit to perform his duties on the ground of physical infirmity or continued ill-health, and he has been served with a notice in writing containing the grounds of discharge. The notice shall be for a period of not less than thirty days, or such longer period as may be required under the terms of employment:

Provided that the notice of discharge may be of a shorter period if the same is accompanied with payment of wages to the employee for the number of days the notice is short of the required period.

Nothing in sub-section (1) shall apply to dismissal for misconduct.

20. Termination of employment by an employee.—(1) No employee, other than an employee engaged for a specified period or in a leave vacancy, shall terminate his employment, except after notice of thirty days, or of such longer period, as may be required under the terms of his employment.

(2) Where an employee fails to comply with the provisions of sub-section (1), his unpaid wages for a period not exceeding fifteen days may be forfeited to his employer.

CHAPTER V EMPLOYMENT OF CHILDREN AND WOMEN

21. Prohibition of employment of children.—No child shall be required, or allowed, to work in any shop or commercial establishment except as an apprentice in such employment as may be notified by the State Government in the Gazette.

22. Prohibition of employment of women and children during night.—No woman or child shall be required, or allowed, to work, whether as an employee or otherwise in any shop or commercial establishment during night.

23. Prohibition of employment of women during certain period.—No employer shall knowingly require or allow a woman to work, and no woman shall work in any shop or commercial establishment during the period of six weeks following the day on which she is delivered of a child.

24. Right of absence during pregnancy.—(1) A pregnant woman employee may, by seven clear days' notice in writing, require her employer to relieve her from duty for a period not exceeding six weeks preceding the expected date of delivery.

(2) On receipt of the notice the employer shall, subject to the provisions of sub-section (3), permit such employee to remain absent from duty for a period of six weeks ending with the expected date of her delivery.

(3) (a) On receipt of the notice, the employer may require such employee to be examined at his cost by a lady doctor, if she so desires, or, otherwise, by any qualified medical practitioner or a midwife.

(b) If the woman employee—

(i) refuses to submit herself to medical examination, or

(ii) on such examination is found not pregnant, or not likely to be delivered of a child within six weeks of the date from which permission for absence from duty is desired, the employer may refuse to relieve her from duty, so however that the employee, if found pregnant, shall be allowed to remain absent from duty for a period of six weeks prior to the expected date of the delivery.

25. Maternity leave.—The period of absence from duty in respect of which a woman employee is entitled to maternity benefits under Section 26 of this Act, shall be treated as authorised absence from duty, and the woman employee shall be entitled to maternity benefits, but not to any wages, for any of these periods.

26. Maternity benefit.—Every woman employee who has been, for a period of not less than six months preceding the date of her delivery, in continuous employment of the same employer, whether in the same or different shops or commercial establishments, shall be entitled to receive from her employer for the period of—

(a) six weeks immediately preceding the day of delivery; and

(b) six weeks following the day of delivery;

such maternity benefits and in such manner as may be prescribed:

Provided that no woman employee shall be entitled to receive such benefits for any day during any of the aforesaid periods, on which she attends work and receives wages therefor.

27. Intervals for rest.—A woman employee, during the period she is nursing her child, shall, in addition to the regular intervals of rest, be entitled to two breaks of half an hour each for the aforesaid purpose.

28. Prohibition of discharge or removal from service during or on account of absence from duty owing to confinement.—(1) No employer shall discharge or remove from service any woman employee on account of, or during the period of, absence from duty allowed to her under Section 26.

(2) No woman employee shall, as a result of her discharge or removal from service within six months of the day of her delivery, be deprived of the maternity benefits, which she would have, but for the discharge or removal, been entitled to, if the same is held by the Inspector to be without sufficient cause.

CHAPTER VI ENFORCEMENT AND PENALTIES

29. Appointment of Inspectors.—The State Government may appoint a Chief Inspector, and a Deputy Chief Inspector, for the whole of Uttar Pradesh, and as many Inspectors for different areas thereof as may be considered necessary.

30. Powers of the Inspectors to enter, etc.—Subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, an Inspector may, at all reasonable times, enter any place which is, or which he has reason to believe to be, a shop or commercial establishment, for the purpose of examining the registers, records or other documents kept therein. The Inspector may take with him such persons to assist him as he may consider necessary, and the owner or the occupant, for the time being, of the place shall allow them to enter and examine the said registers, records or documents. The Inspector may seize such of them as he may require for the purpose of proving the contravention of any of the provisions of this Act or the rules made thereunder.

31. Inspectors, etc. to be public servants.—The Chief Inspector, the Deputy Chief Inspector and every Inspector appointed under Section 29, shall be deemed to be a public servant within the meaning of Section 21 of the Indian Penal Code.

32. Maintenance of registers and records by the employers.—An employer shall maintain such registers and records and display such notices, as may be prescribed.

33. Contravention of provisions.—Any person, who contravenes, or fails to comply with any of the provisions of this Act, or of the rules made thereunder, other than those of sub-section (1) of Section 20, shall be guilty of an offence under this Act.

34. Offences by companies, etc.—(1) If the person committing an offence under this Act or the rules made thereunder is a company, the company as well as every person in charge of, and responsible to, the company for the conduct of its business at the time of the commission of the offence, shall be deemed to be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly:

Provided that, nothing contained in this sub-section shall render any such person liable to any punishment if he proves that the offence was committed without his knowledge or that he exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of such offence.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1) where an offence under this Act has been committed by a company, and it is proved that the offence has been committed with the consent or connivance of, or that the commission of the offence is attributable to any neglect on the part of, any director, manager, secretary or other officer of the company, such director, manager, secretary or other officer shall also be deemed to be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section,—

(a) "company" means any body corporate and includes a firm or other association of individuals, and

(b) "director" in relation to a firm is a partner in the firm.

35. Punishment.—Any person guilty of an offence under this Act shall be liable to fine which may, for the first offence, extend to one hundred rupees and, for every subsequent offence, to five hundred rupees.

36. Limitation of prosecution.—(1) No court shall take cognizance of any offence under this Act or the rules made thereunder except on complaint in writing made within six months of the date on which the offence is alleged to have been committed.

(2) Courts empowered to try offences under this Act.—No court inferior to that of a Magistrate of the Second Class shall try any offence under this Act, or the rules made thereunder.

²⁸[(3) The Chief Inspector may, subject to any general or special order of the State Government in this behalf, compound any offence punishable under this Act, either before or after institution of the prosecution, on realisation of such amount of composition fee as he thinks fit not exceeding the maximum amount of fine fixed for the offence; and where the offence is so compounded—

(i) before the institution of the prosecution, the offender shall not be liable to prosecution for such offence and shall, if in custody, be set at liberty;

(ii) after the institution of the prosecution, the composition shall amount to acquittal of the offender.]

CHAPTER VII MISCELLANEOUS

37. Protection of action taken under this Act.—No suit, prosecution or other legal proceedings shall lie against any officer or authority under this Act, for anything done, or intended to have been done, in good faith in pursuance of the provisions of this Act or the rules or orders made thereunder.

38. Presumption:—Whenever a shop or commercial establishment is actually opened, it shall be presumed that it is opened for the service of any customer or for the business, trade or manufacture normally carried on in the shop or commercial establishment.

39. Application of Workmen's Compensation Act and Rules:—The provisions of the Workmen's Compensation Act, 1923, and of the rules made thereunder, shall mutatis mutandis apply to every employee of a shop or commercial establishment.

40. Rule-making power:—(1) The State Government may ²⁹[by notification] make rules to carry out the purposes of this Act.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing powers, the State Government may make rules regarding all or any of the following matters, namely—

(a) the registers and records to be maintained by an employer;

(b) the notice to be displayed by an employer;

³⁰[(b-1) the form of register of shops and commercial establishments under Chapter 1-A;

(b-2) the fees for registration, for renewal of registration certificate and for issue of duplicate registration certificate under Chapter 1-A;

- (b-3) the form of registration certificate under Chapter 1-A;]
- (c) deductions that may be made from the wages of an employee;
- (d) fines and dismissals;
- (e) regulating the grant of casual leave and the payment of wages for the period of such leave;
- (f) regulating the grant of other leave;
- (g) maternity benefits and their payment;
- (h) matters which are to be, or may be prescribed under this Act.
- (3) The rules made under this section shall be subject to the condition of previous publication.
- (4) 31[* * *]

- (7) Kartiki Poornima; and
- (8) Idu'l Fitr.]

[Section 8(2)]

6. Approval of an employer's choice of a close day.—Every District Magistrate shall, for the area within his jurisdiction, be the authority empowered under sub-section (2) of Section 8 to approve the choice by the employer of a close day.

[Section 8(2) and (3)]

7. Notice of close day and notice of alteration in close day.—(1) The notice for the approval of a close day under sub-sections (2) and (3) of Section 8 of the Act, shall be in Form "A".

(2) For fixation of a uniform close day for a locality under the first proviso to Section 8 or for altering the close day on a written request of the majority of the employers in a locality, under the second proviso to the said section, the authority appointed under sub-section (2) of Section 8, shall ascertain the views of the majority of the employers in the locality in regard to the proposed close day by calling a meeting of the employers or in such other manner as he may deem fit and shall fix or alter the close day for that locality after considering the views, if any, so ascertained.

(3) A copy of the order passed by the aforesaid authority shall be sent to the Chief Inspector and the Inspector concerned, as soon as possible.

[Section 8(2)]

8. Notice specifying close day.—(i) The notice specifying close days, shall be in Form, "B".

(ii) A copy of every such notice shall be sent by the employer to the Inspector concerned within two days of its being first displayed in the shop or commercial establishment.

[Section (9)]

9. Notice of weekly holiday.—Every employer shall exhibit in his shop or commercial establishment a notice in Form "C" specifying the day or days of the week on which the employees shall be given holiday. The notice shall be exhibited before the persons employed cease work on the Saturday immediately preceding the week during which it will have effect.

[Section 10]

10. (i) Earned Leave—

(a) Every application for earned leave shall be made in writing and in case of leave for more than three consecutive days shall ordinarily be made at least seven days before the date from which leave is required. An application for leave for three days or less shall ordinarily be made at least twenty-four hours before the date from which leave is required:

Provided that earned leave shall not be taken more than three times in a year.

(b) The earned leave applied for, may be refused by the employer on grounds of exigency of work and reasons for giving refusal shall be recorded in writing and communicated to the employee concerned.

(c) The order on an application, either accepting or refusing earned leave shall be passed and communicated to the employee before the date from which leave has been applied for.

(d) Every application for earned leave and the orders of the employer passed thereon shall be retained by the employer for a period of not less than three years.

(e) The employer shall at the close of every year, communicate in writing to the employee, on demand made by him, the account of his earned leave including leave carried forward from the previous year, the leave earned during the year, the leave availed during the year and the leave to be carried forward to the next year.

(ii) Sickness leave—

No application from an employee for sickness leave, in accordance with the provisions of subsection (2) of Section 10 shall be refused, but if in any case the employer is not satisfied about the truth of the assertion set out therein, the employer may require it to be supported by a certificate from a registered medical practitioner recommending the leave applied for.

(iii) Casual leave—

(a) Every application from an employee for casual leave shall be in writing. The employer shall record his orders on all such applications and shall retain them for at least one year.

(b) Ordinarily no application for casual leave for one day in any month, if due, shall be refused by the employer. Where, however, an employee has rendered more than one month's service in any calendar year, he may apply for a part or the whole of the casual leave due to him, provided that such leave does not exceed one day for every month of service rendered by him in that calendar year.

(c) An employer may after recording his reasons in writing refuse an application for casual leave from an employee on grounds of exceptional pressure of work requiring his attendance on the day or days in respect of which casual leave has been asked for:

Provided that leave shall not be refused where it has been asked for on account of accident, physical injury to the employee, death in the family or sickness of the employee, his wife or child.

(d) Where an application has been made on grounds of physical injury or sickness of the employee, his wife or child, an employer may get the employee or the wife or child of the employee, as the case may be, examined at his (employer's) own expense by a registered medical practitioner for the purpose of verifying the facts mentioned in the application for leave and may grant or reject the application on the basis of the certificate of such medical practitioner.

(f) Where an application for casual leave is refused by an employer under clause (c) the employer shall, therefor, grant equivalent leave to the employee in the same calendar year.

(g) Any casual leave, not applied for, by an employee during a calendar year, shall lapse.

[Section 13]

11. Payment of wages.—(1) Wage period may be monthly, fortnightly, weekly or daily. Where the wage period consists of a month every employer shall pay the wages of his employee, before the expiry of the seventh day after the last day of the wage period in respect of which the wages are payable. Where the wage period is either a fortnight or a week, payment shall be made by the employer before the expiry of three days after the last day of the wage period in respect of which the wages are payable, where the wage period is daily, payment shall be made by the employer before the expiry of 24 hours of the wage period:

Provided that if an employee be absent on a day on which payment would have been made, but for such absence the payment shall be made within three days after the employee returns to work or demands payments.

(2) All payment of wages shall be made on a working day.

[Section 15]

12. Deduction from wages.—(1) No deduction shall be made by an employer from the wages of an employee except on account of—

(a) fines;

(b) absence from duty;

(c) damage to or loss of goods expressly entrusted to the employee for custody, or loss of money for which he is required to account, where such damage or loss is directly attributable to his neglect or default;

(d) house accommodation supplied by the employer where the rent was being charged by the employer from the employee on the date the Act came into force;

(e) such amenities and services as the State Government may, by general or special order, specify.

Explanation.—The word "services" in this sub-rule does not include the supply of tools and raw materials required for the purposes of employment;

(f) recovery of advance or of overpayment of wages;

(g) income tax payable by the employee;

(h) amounts required to be recovered by order of a court or other authority competent to make such order;

(i) subscription to, or repayment of advance from, any provident fund to which the Provident Funds Act, 1925 (XIX of 1925), applies or any other provident fund recognised under Rule 3 of Part A of the Fourth Schedule to the Income Tax Act, 1961 (43 of 1961), or approved in this behalf by the State Government during the continuance of such recognition or approval;

(j) payments to co-operative societies approved by the State Government;

(k) revenue stamps required to be attached to pay receipts;

(l) supply of cooked food or refreshment during the hours of employment in accordance with any scheme previously approved by the Chief Inspector;

(m) payment of any insurance premium on the employee's life insurance policy or of contribution to the National Defence Fund or any Defence Saving Scheme approved by the State Government, provided that prior written authorization in this behalf is obtained from the employee;

(n) payment of security deposits agreed to in writing by an employee and in accordance with any scheme approved previously in writing by the Chief Inspector;

(o) employee's contribution to a superannuation fund approved under Part B of the Fourth Schedule to the Income Tax Act, 1961, or of any similar scheme agreed to in writing by employer and previously approved in writing by the Chief Inspector.

Explanation.—(i) Every payment made by an employee to the employer or his agent shall, for the purposes of these rules, be deemed to be a deduction from wages

(ii) Every deduction made by an employer or his agent from any deposit taken from an employee as security for the purposes of employment shall be deemed to be a deduction from wages.

(2) No fine shall be imposed on an employee—

(a) except for an act or omission specified by the employer with the approval of the Chief Inspector or the Deputy Chief Inspector; or

(b) without giving the employee concerned a reasonable opportunity of showing cause against the proposed fine:

Provided that the employer may if he is satisfied that for some reason to be recorded by him in writing it is not reasonably practicable to give the employee an opportunity to show cause, dispense with such opportunity.

(3) (a) Deductions may be made under clause (b) of sub-rule (1) only on account of the absence of an employee from the place or places where, by the terms of his employment he is required to work, such absence being for the whole or any part of the period during which he is so required to work.

(b) The amount of such deductions for absence from duty shall, in no case, bear to the wages payable to the employee in respect of the wage period for which the deduction is made, a larger proportion than the period for which he has been absent bears to the total period, within such wage period during which by the terms of his employment, he was required to work:

Provided that, subject to any orders made in this behalf by the State Government, if ten or more employees or where the total number of employees is 20 or less one-half of the total number acting in concert absent themselves without the due notice (that is to say without giving the notice which is required under the terms of their contract of employment), and without reasonable cause, such deduction from any employee may include such amount not exceeding his wages for eight days as may by any such terms be due to the employer in lieu of the notice.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this sub-rule, an employee shall be deemed to be absent from the place where he is required to work if, although, present in such place he refuses in pursuance of a stay-in-strike or for any other cause, which is not reasonable in the circumstances, to carry out his work.

(4) A deduction under clause (c) of sub-rule (1) shall not exceed the amount of damage or loss caused to the employer by the neglect or default of the employee and shall not be made until the employee has been given an opportunity of showing cause against such deduction.

(5) A deduction under clause (d) or clause (e) of sub-rule (1) shall not be made from the wages of an employee unless the house accommodation, amenity or service has been accepted by him, as the term of employment or otherwise, and such deduction shall not exceed an amount equivalent to the value of the house accommodation, amenity or service supplied and in the case of a deduction under clause (e) shall be subject to such conditions as the State Government may impose in the order specifying the amenities or services.

(6) Deductions under clause (f) of sub-rule (1) shall be subject to the following conditions—

(i) recovery of an advance of money given before employment began shall be made from the first payment of wages in respect of a complete wage period, but no recovery shall be made of such advances for travelling expenses;

(ii) recovery of advances of wages not already earned shall be subject to any order made by the State Government regulating the extent to which such advances may be given and the instalments by which they may be recorded;

(iii) no instalments for recovery of advance shall exceed one-third, or where the wages for any wage period do not exceed Rs 20, one-fourth of the wages for the period in respect of which the deduction is made; and

(iv) the amount and date of every advance and its repayment with the date thereof shall be entered in Form "G" prescribed under Rule 18.

(7) Deductions under clause (j) of sub-rule (1) shall be subject to such conditions as the State Government may, by order, impose.

(8) All such deductions and realizations shall be recorded in a register in Form "D".

[Section 17(1)]

13. Register of fines.—(1) Every employer shall maintain a register of fines and realization thereof in Form "E".

(2) At the beginning of the register shall be entered serially numbered approved purposes for which the fines realised can be expended.

[Section 17(2)]

14. Utilization of fines for beneficial purposes.—(1) The Chief Inspector shall be the authority empowered under sub-section (2) of Section 17 of the Act, by the State Government to approve the purposes on which recoveries of fines may be applied.

(2) The Chief Inspector may, by general or special order, direct that the recoveries of fines shall be expended in whole or part within such reasonable time as may be specified by him.

[SECTION 19(2)]

15. Acts constituting misconduct.—The following acts or omissions shall constitute misconduct for purposes of sub-section (2) of Section 19—

(a) wilful insubordination or disobedience whether alone or in combination with another of any lawful order of a superior;

(b) striking work either singly or with any other employee without giving due notice prescribed by any law for the time being in force;

(c) inciting, whilst in the shop or commercial establishment, any employee to strike work;

(d) theft, fraud or dishonesty in connection with the employer's business or property;

(e) taking or giving bribe or any illegal gratification whatsoever;

(f) habitual absence without leave;

(g) drunkenness, fighting, riotous or disorderly behaviour or conduct likely to cause a breach of peace, or conduct endangering the life or safety of any other person or any act subversive of discipline and efficiency and any act involving moral turpitude, committed within the shop or commercial establishment;

(h) habitual negligence or neglect of work;

(i) threatening or intimidating any employee in the shop or commercial establishment;

(j) disclosing to an unauthorised person any information in regard to the working process of the shop or commercial establishment which comes into the possession of an employee during the course of his work;

(k) gambling within the shop or commercial establishment;

(l) sleeping while on duty; and

(m) insubordination, malingering, deliberate delaying of production or carrying out of orders.

Explanation.—No act of misconduct which is committed on less than three occasions within one year or a lesser period shall be treated as "habitual".

[Section 26]

16. Maternity benefit.—(1) The maternity benefits payable to a woman employee under Section 26 shall be at the rate of her average daily wages calculated on the total wages earned on the days when full-time work was done during a period of three months immediately preceding the date on which she has given notice under sub-section (1) of Section 24 or at the rate of Re 1 per day, whichever is more.

(2) The payment of maternity benefit accruing to a woman employee shall be made to her at any time not later than one week after the date of her delivery.

Provided that if a woman dies during this period, the maternity benefit shall be payable only for the days up to and including the day of her death.

(3) The amount payable to a woman employee as maternity benefit in accordance with the foregoing rules shall for the purpose of its recovery be deemed to be part of her wages.

(4) Payment in respect of a claim of maternity benefit shall be made by the employer to the woman employee concerned or to a person nominated by her in writing or acting on her behalf, or in case of her death to the person who undertakes the care of the child and if the child does not survive her, to her legal heir.

[Section 24(1)]

17. The notice under sub-section (1) of Section 24 shall be in Form "F". This form shall be made available by the employer to the employee concerned at any time during working hours.

[Section 32]

⁶⁴[18. Maintenance of register, record, etc.—(1) Every employer shall—

(a) Employing up to ten employees shall also maintain a register in respect of attendance, and payment of wages, deductions and leave facilities in Form 'CC'

(b) Employing employees exceeding ten but not exceeding twenty-five shall maintain the register of attendance and wages in Form 'G' and also maintain a register of leave in Form 'H'.

(c) Employing employees exceeding 25 shall be required to maintain a register of attendance and wages in Form 'G', a register of leave in Form 'H', a register of deductions from wages in Form 'D'.

(2) Every employer employing more than 25 employees shall exhibit in his shop or commercial establishment a notice containing such extracts of the Act and these rules in Hindi written in Devnagri script, as the Chief Inspector may direct.

(3) Any notice required to be exhibited under these rules shall be exhibited in such manner that it can readily be seen and read by any person whom it affects and shall be in Hindi written in Devnagri Script. Every such notice shall be renewed promptly, whenever it becomes defaced or otherwise illegible.

(4) In any register or record which an employer is required to maintain under these rules, the entries relating to any day shall, as far as possible, be made on that particular day.

(5) The registers and notices to be kept by the employers relating to any year shall be preserved for six years after the expiry of the year to which they relate and shall be produced before an Inspector.]

[Section 30]

19. Manner of entry into premises and examination of records and registers, etc.—(1) An Inspector making entry under Section 30 may interrogate such persons as he may consider necessary.

(2) The Inspector may also call for any information, document or record relevant to his examination and obtain copy thereof.

(3) Before seizing any register, record or document the Inspector shall record in writing his reasons for such seizure and shall as soon as may be after the seizure grant a receipt for the same and shall retain the same only for so long as may be necessary for examination thereof for prosecution.

(4) After entry and on examination the Inspector shall record an inspection note, in duplicate and shall furnish one copy thereof to the employer. The inspection note shall state any defects or defaults that may come to light at the time of examination.

(5) An Inspector may require an employer to produce at his own expense a certificate of age in Form "I" of a registered medical practitioner in respect of any employee whose age he may have reason to doubt and whom he considers to have been employed in contravention of the provisions of the Act.

[Section 32]

20. Inspector's Visit and Inspection Book.—Every employer shall maintain an Inspector's Visit and Inspection Book in his shop or commercial establishment and shall produce the same before the Inspector on demand. The book shall contain all Inspection notes recorded or issued by Inspector in respect of that shop or commercial establishment.

21. Where the Chief Inspector is satisfied that the maintenance of any register in the form prescribed in these rules will entail particular hardship in the case of any shop or commercial establishment or class of shops and commercial establishments, he may allow the employers thereof to maintain the register in such modified form as may be determined by him.

22. (1) Whenever the Collector is satisfied in respect of a shop that it deals exclusively or mainly in the material needed for burial, funeral and cremation purposes, he shall issue a notification in Form 'J' in respect of the shop.

(2) The notification shall be published by—

(a) delivering a copy thereof to the employer of the shop and another to the Inspector concerned; and

(b) being displayed on the notice-board of the office of the Collector.

(3) A notification under sub-rule (1) may, for reasons to be recorded, be cancelled by the Collector after allowing the employer of the shop an opportunity to show cause against the proposed cancellation.

Rates of Minimum Wages in Respect of Shops and Commercial Establishments

English translation of Shram Anubhag-3, Noti. No. 214/XXXVI-3—6(M.W.)-90, dated January 18, 1992, published in the U.P Gazette, Extra., Part 4, Section (kha), dated 18th January, 1992, pp. 3-5

In exercise of the powers under clause (b) of sub-section (1) and clause (c) of sub-section (2) of Section 3 read with clause (i), sub-section (1) and Section 4 of the Minimum Wages Act, 1948 (Act No. XI of 1948) and in supersession of Government Notification No. 735/XXXVI-3—1028(M.W)-76, dated June 21, 1948 and after consulting the Advisory Board and after having considered the objections and suggestions received in respect of the proposals published with Government Notification No. 3831/XXXVI-3—6 (M.W.)-90, dated October 29, 1990, the Governor is pleased to revise and fix the minimum rates of wages for employees employed in the employment in (1) Commercial Establishment in Uttar Pradesh and in (2) Shops in Uttar Pradesh with effect from the date of publication of this notification in the Gazette.

Minimum rates of wages in respect of employees employed in the employment in (1) Commercial Establishment in Uttar Pradesh and in (2) Shops in Uttar Pradesh

1. The minimum rates of wages payable to adult employees for different classes of work on 167 points of All-India Consumer Price Index Number (1982=100) shall be as follows:—

Sl. No.	Category of workers	Minimum monthly rates of wages payable to adult employee in towns of U.P. with a population of	Annual increment in the monthly rates of Column 3	Minimum monthly rates of wages payable in rest of U.P.	Annual increment in the monthly rates of Column 5

		one lakh or more
1	2	3	4	5	6
		Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
1.	Unskilled	750.00	5.00	725.00	4.00
2.	Semi-skilled	880.00	8.00	851.00	6.00
3.	Skilled	1011.00	12.00	877.00	8.00
4.	Clerical staff-
	(1) Grade-II	1066.00	14.00	1030.00	10.00
	(2) Grade-I	1229.00	17.00	1188.00	14.00

2. Cost of Living Allowance.—For rise in the Consumer Price Index Number over 167 points of All-India Consumer Price Index Number (1982=100), the dearness allowance shall be neutralized 100 per cent and cost of living allowance shall be payable and adjustment shall be made in April and October each year on the basis of the average of the Consumer Price Index Number for July to December of the preceding year and January to June of the same year respectively.

Illustration.—(i) Suppose the average of Consumer Price Index Number for January, 1991 to June, 1991 is 197 points the increase in cost of living allowance payable per month with effect from October 1, 1991 for an adult unskilled employee will be—

$$\frac{(197-167) \times 750}{167} = \frac{30 \times 750}{167} = \text{Rs. } 134.73$$

(ii) The employee shall earn increment after one year of enforcement of this notification. Therefore, the employees in the respective categories shall be entitled to cost of living allowance after adding the said increment to their basic wage, for example, if average of Consumer Price Index Number for January to June 1992 works out to be 207, then the cost of living allowance admissible after first increment to an unskilled employee shall be as follows—

$$\frac{(207-167) \times 755}{167} = \frac{40 \times 755}{167} = \text{Rs. } 180.83$$

3. The daily rate of wages shall not be less than 1/26th of the corresponding monthly rate.

4. The hourly rate of wages shall not be less than 1/6th of the daily rate.

5. The time-rate of wages payable to adolescents and children shall not be less than 99 per cent and 95 per cent respectively of the time-rate applicable to an adult employee.

6. The employees whose hours of work including interval for rest are less than six hours a day or thirty-six hours a week will be treated as part-time employees and their hourly rate shall not be less than one-sixth of the corresponding daily rate.

7. The above rates of wages shall not in any way operate to the prejudice of any employee. If the rates of wages (including annual increments and cost of living allowance) prevailing before coming into force of these rates are higher, then the prevailing rate shall be continued and paid as if they have been so fixed under the said Act as minimum rates of wages and in no case the same shall be reduced by any employer.

8. From April 1991 or thereafter whenever the cost of living allowance would be calculated or revised as prescribed in paragraph 2, the increase in such allowance shall be admissible to all categories of employees whether on the date of publication of this notification, they were getting higher minimum rates of wages than prescribed in paragraph 1 of this notification.

9. Where any class of work is performed on piece-rate basis the time-rate prescribed for the particular kind of work shall be the guaranteed time-rate.

10. The time-rate of minimum wages given above includes remuneration in respect of the day of rest as contemplated under clause (b) of sub-section (1) of Section 13 of the Minimum Wages Act, 1948.

11. If any employer undertakes any work of employment through Contract Labour with or without obtaining the certificate under the Contract Labour (Regulation and Abolition) Act, 1970, such Contract Labour shall also be deemed to be the labour engaged by the employer directly in view of Section 9 of the aforesaid Act read with sub-clause (iv) of clause (i) of Section 2 of the U.P. Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 and shall be entitled to same rates of wages and Cost of Living Allowance which have been made admissible under paras 1 and 2 of this notification.
